

Development Finance (CBILS)

We understand that many developers have been adversely impacted by Coronavirus. Assetz Capital has one of the most experienced property development lending teams in the industry and one of the few lenders who can offer a development finance loan under CBILS.

Product benefits

- ✔ We focus on LTGDV rather than LTC, but still need a sensible borrower contribution day one. The level of any pre-sales is factored into our assessment
- ✔ We consider less experienced developers provided they have an experienced team of professional advisers and contractor
- ✔ We consider impaired credit applications with "a good story" that we can verify
